Evaluation Survey for Students

1. Based on your experience in the i@Home project to what extent do you agree or disagree with the following:

   Strongly agree
   Agree
   Disagree
   Strongly disagree
   Don’t Know

   a. I enjoyed participating in the i@Home project.
   b. I would participate in another i@Home project in the future.
   c. I would recommend an i@Home project to others.
   d. I will seek out other international and intercultural opportunities.
   e. The project increased my interest in learning/improving my communication in another language.

2. To what extent would you agree or disagree with the following statements about the benefits of participating in an i@Home project:

   Strongly agree
   Agree
   Disagree
   Strongly disagree
   Don’t Know

   a. The program increased my knowledge of global issues.
   b. The program increased my understanding of methodologies and technologies related to the subject matter.
   c. The project increased my awareness of current research and trends related to the subject matter.
   d. The project increased my understanding of how the academic/professional field is viewed in different cultural contexts.
   e. The project increased your understanding of how the academic/professional field is practiced in different cultural contexts.
   f. Participating in the project increased my knowledge in understanding other cultures/languages.
   g. Participating in the project increased my knowledge in understanding how other cultures approach academics.
   h. Participating in the project increased my skills in working with people from other cultures.
   i. Participating in the project increased my comfort with technologies that enable communication with people in other countries.
j. The project increased my understanding of my own culture (i.e. beliefs, values, perspectives, and practices).

k. The project increased my understanding of other cultures (i.e. beliefs, values, perspectives, and practices).

l. Participating in the project improved my ability to describe my own culture with greater knowledge and awareness.

m. The project gave me incentive to use technology to participate in the global exchange of ideas and information.

n. Participating in the project increased my acceptance of cultural differences.

o. Participating in the project increased my willingness to learn from people of other cultures.

p. Participating in the project made me aware that I need to continue to be engaged internationally for personal and professional growth.

q. Participating in the project enabled me to be more flexible and adaptive in working with other cultures.

r. Participating in the project has taught me to apply new approaches and perspectives to the area of study.

s. Participating in the project has improved and refined my ability to communicate with people from other cultures/languages.

Open Ended satisfaction questions with delivery of project

- Describe what you liked about the international component to this course.
- Describe what you did not like about the international component to this course.
- What would you change about the international component to this course?

Background

1. Sex
2. Age
3. Citizenship/PR/VISA
4. Student’s Year of Study
5. How would you rate your knowledge of other cultures in general?
6. Prior to participating in the i@Home project, how often did you collaborate with someone from another culture while doing the following:

   Always || Sometimes || Rarely || Never

   a. Studying
   b. Working
   c. Family Events
   d. Socializing
   e. Traveling
   f. Athletics
   g. Gaming

7. Have you ever studied, worked or travelled internationally?